

Café & culture

Hertex Fabrics has just opened a new café at its Bellville branch. With a menu curated by chef Eva de Jesus, 1987 is a casual yet chic eatery in a picturesque setting. There are breakfast, lunch and teatime options, and the cakes and pastries are freshly baked. hertex.co.za

Go with the flow

The Happy Vibes Collective, or HAVVY, is the brainchild of Leigh Cattell and Kristine Leigh, whose mutual love of yoga, the beach and adventure, and experience in buying and design, sparked the brand that aims to channel positivity and a global outlook. Currently a swimwear collection but with plans to evolve into a lifestyle and events brand, it's all about a holistic, healthy lifestyle. havvycollective.com

THE WHOLE NINE YARDS

A collaboration between Spice Route founder Abigail Bisogno and restaurateur GP Singh, The Yard in Cape Town's Silo District is a deli/retail/fine dining destination. The deli and retail sections stock curated homeware and food products ranging from artisanal cheeses and charcuterie to spice mixes and preserves. On the restaurant side are bar, buffet and fine dining options, presided over by GP Singh, who has created a globally inspired menu. This beautifully designed space is conveniently located in the hub of businesses and retail space directly across from the Silo Hotel.
